

FESTIVAL ON THE FIELD

Another great night! Thank you everyone for coming along and supporting our event. Thanks to the Friends of St Mawgan PTA team, (consisting of just 5 parents for this event: Helen W, Helen C, Celia S, Sara A and Nicola M); the Stein brothers (Ed Stein and their team of volunteers) for providing lovely Indian food; Steve Panter and Steve Mildenhall/The Treviglas Steelers for providing great music/atmosphere; Brandon's Hire; Cowling Plant Hire; Treescapes; Treleavens ice cream; Carnewas Café and all those who helped during the event; to man a stall, carry tables etc.. Thanks also to all the businesses who donated raffle prizes, and to Maria Turner, who works at Barclays bank, who have match funded the raffle for the event. This list is endless but without such great community spirit it wouldn't have been such a lovely evening. We managed to raise a massive £5,000! We will be using this money to enhance our outdoor learning experience by revamping our garden area and purchasing outdoor toys/learning materials.

CHAT is a non-profit project and uses a variety of animals (alpacas, llamas and mini ponies). For more information visit their website: chatchylowen.vpweb.co.uk
